

THE PASSIVE (II)

Change the active sentences into passive. Use the underlined words as subject of the passive sentences.

1 Thomas Edison invented the electric light bulb.

2 Twenty seven European countries signed the Treaty of Lisbon.

3 J.R.R Tolkien wrote the Hobbit in 1937.

4. The postman will deliver the parcels soon

5 The Spanish team has won the bronze medal.

6 The headmaster welcomed all the new students.

7. The gardener didn't cut the lawn yesterday.

8 Several people saw the accident

9 Two different teachers have marked the exams.

10 They built the castle in 1547.

11 The children are organizing the Halloween party.

12 Customs officers check people's baggage at the airport.

13 They are painting their house next week.

14 Did they invite you to the party?

15 These books will change your life.

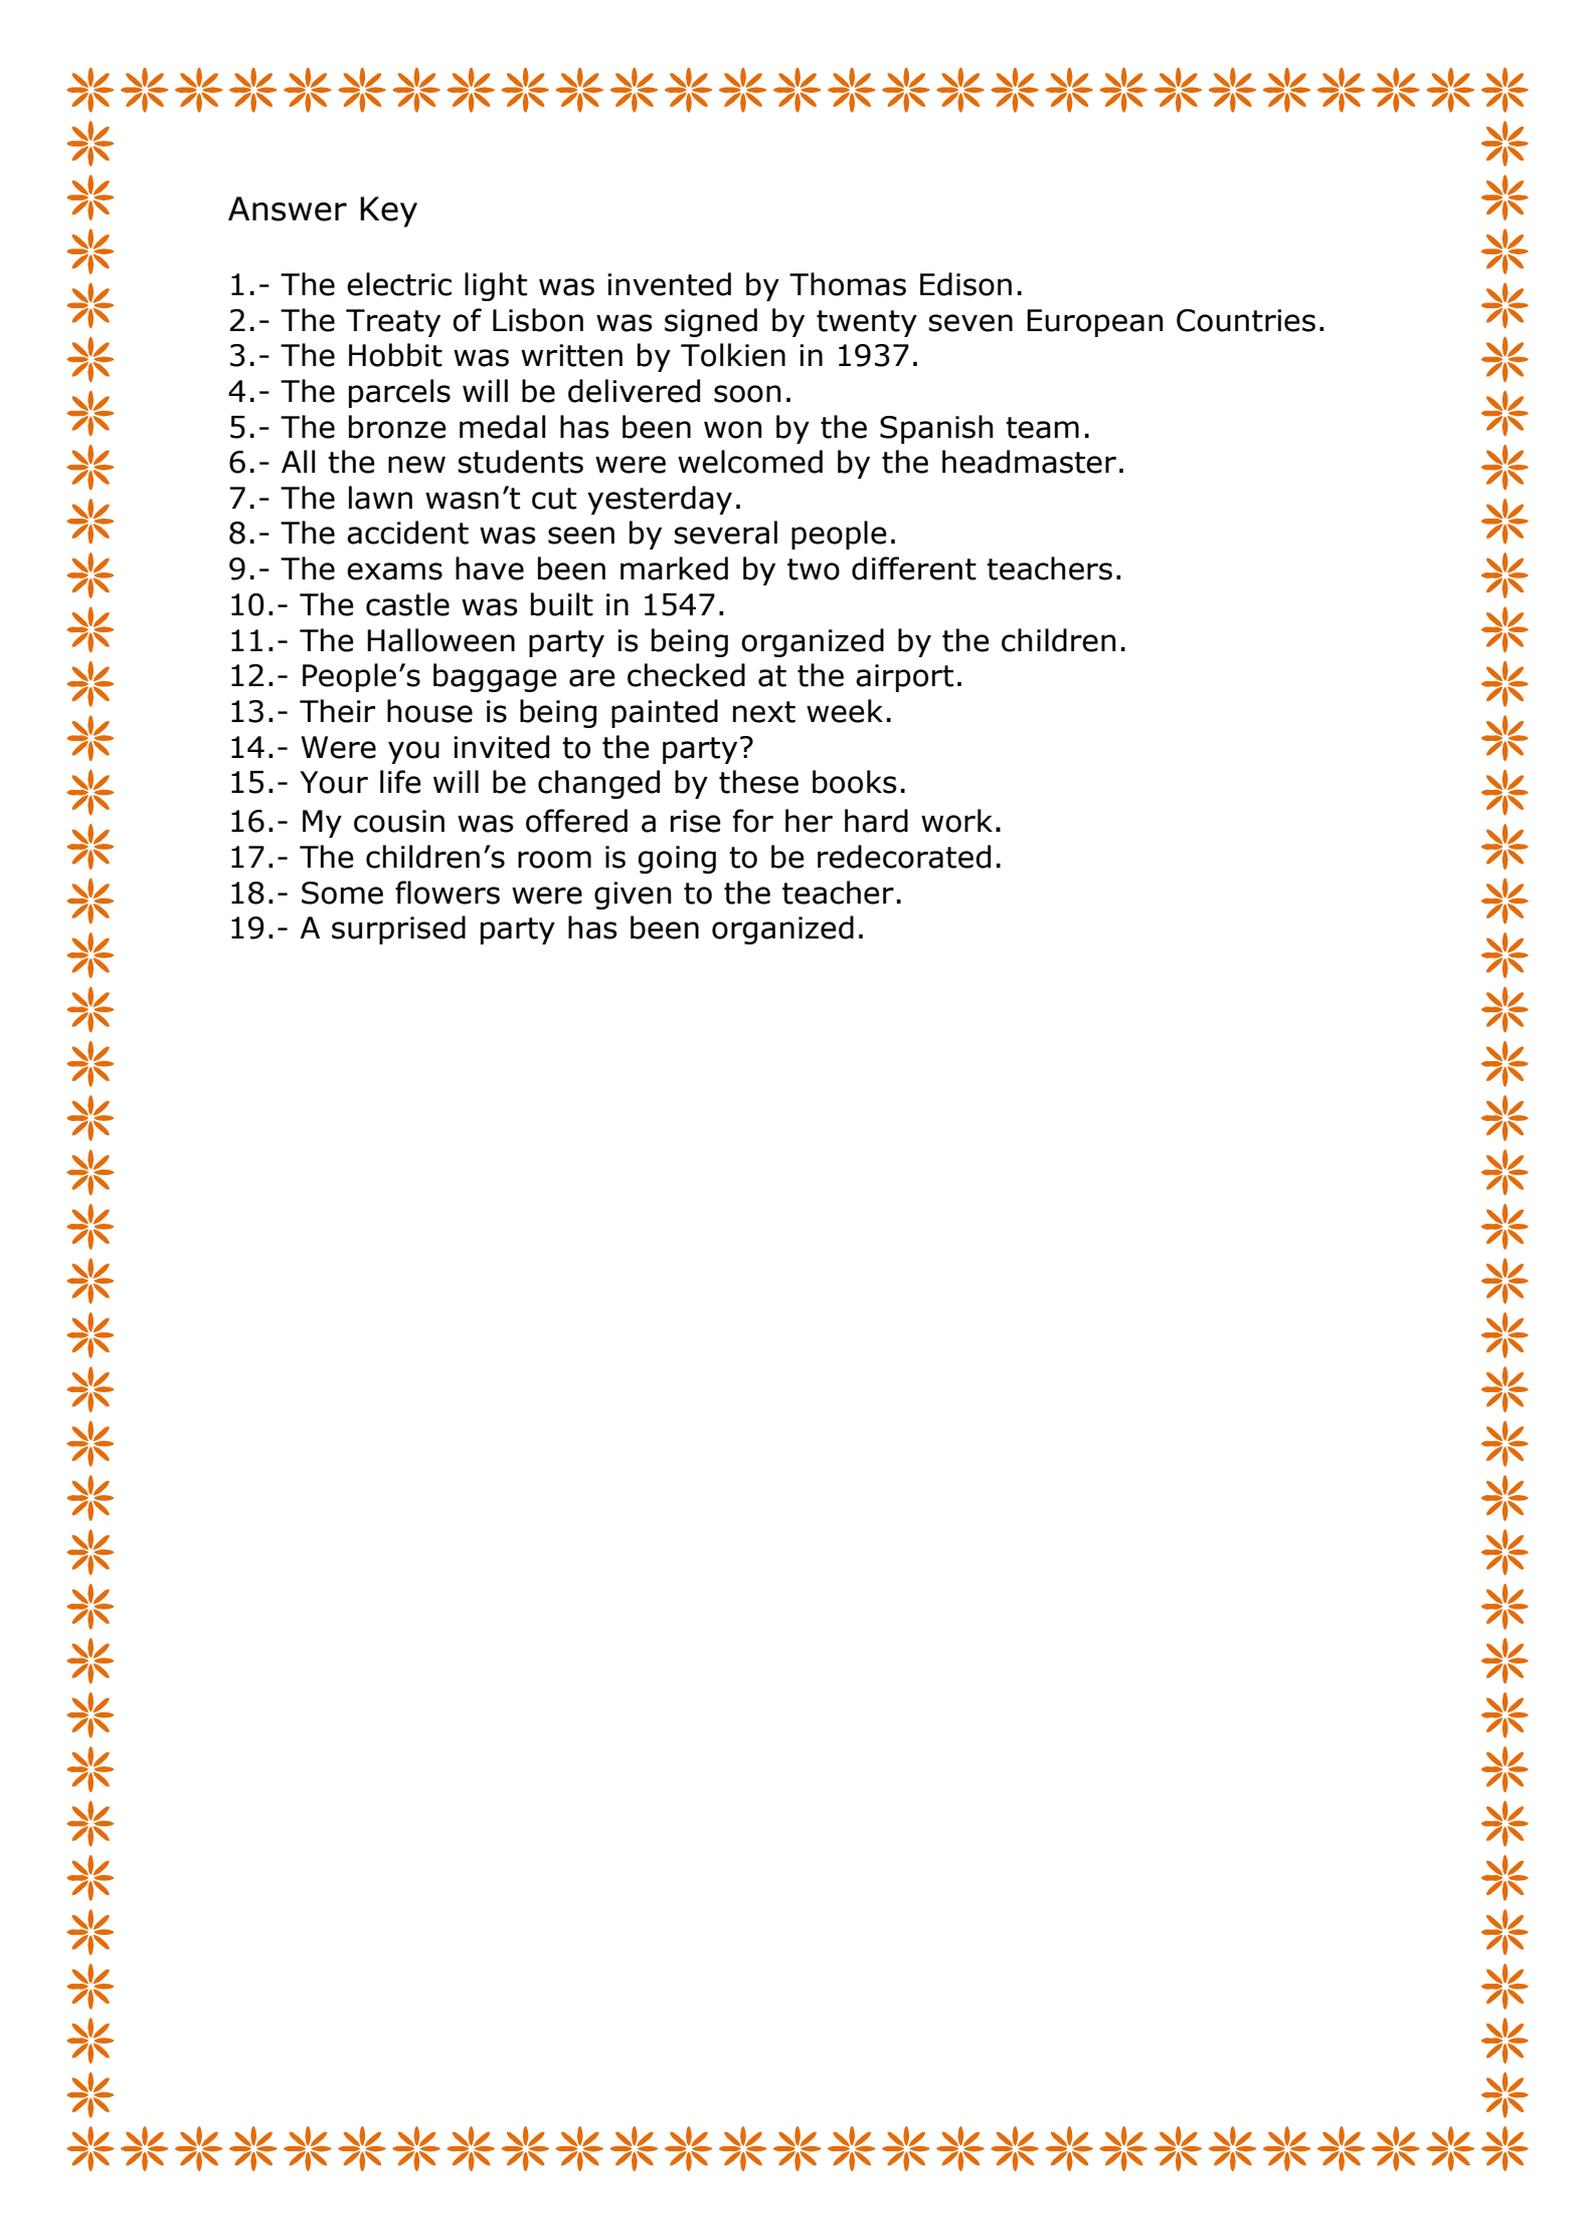

16 The boss offered my cousin a rise for her hard work

17 We are going to redecorate the children's room.

18 The students gave the teacher some flowers.

19 They have organized a surprised party

Answer Key

- 1.- The electric light was invented by Thomas Edison.
- 2.- The Treaty of Lisbon was signed by twenty seven European Countries.
- 3.- The Hobbit was written by Tolkien in 1937.
- 4.- The parcels will be delivered soon.
- 5.- The bronze medal has been won by the Spanish team.
- 6.- All the new students were welcomed by the headmaster.
- 7.- The lawn wasn't cut yesterday.
- 8.- The accident was seen by several people.
- 9.- The exams have been marked by two different teachers.
- 10.- The castle was built in 1547.
- 11.- The Halloween party is being organized by the children.
- 12.- People's baggage are checked at the airport.
- 13.- Their house is being painted next week.
- 14.- Were you invited to the party?
- 15.- Your life will be changed by these books.
- 16.- My cousin was offered a rise for her hard work.
- 17.- The children's room is going to be redecorated.
- 18.- Some flowers were given to the teacher.
- 19.- A surprised party has been organized.